ANNAMITE AMBUSH CLASH

British Naval Units Arrive In Saigon

Serious Situation Reported

RANGOON, OCT. 1. IN THE LATEST REPORTED OUTBREAK OF VIOLENCE IN INDO-CHINA, A CONVOY OF 13 TRUCKS, MANELED BY DUTCH AND JAPANESE, WAS AMBUSHED BY AN ESTIMATED 1,000 ANNAMITES WHILE RETURNING TO SAIGON FROM A JAPANESE ARMS DUMP.

THE ANNAMITES WERE ARMED WITH RIFLES AND LIGHT MACHINE-GUNS. EIGHT TRUCKS GOT THROUGH SAFELY BUT THE OTHER FIVE HAD TO FIGHT OUT AT CLOSE RANGE.

The Japanese, however, did not return the fire and later their commander said the Annamites had been killing too closely around the lorries.

Four lorries and all arms eventually were returned to Saigon.

During the action, a Dutch captain was killed.

Dutch prisoners of war are being armed for action against the rebellious Annamites.

British forces had their first setback on Friday, it was reported belatedly, when two platoons of Indians retired from their position on the north side of the Aroyoe Avelanche river behind the Botanical Gardens after a three-hour fight in which they used three-inch mortars and were reinforced by two sections of French marines.

WEL DUG IN

The Annamites were well dug-in with pillboxes and bunkers. They used grenades and machine-guns. The total Annamite casualties were estimated on Saturday at 154 killed and more than 100 wounded.

Nationalities now participating in the activities include Danish, Dutch, British, American, Japanese, French, Chinese, Indian, Gurkha and Annamites. There are a total of 1,747 liberated Dutch war prisoners in the area.

Arrival of units of the British East Indian fleet in the Saigon River today brought relief to the French residents, who lined the banks waving and cheering as the ships came in. — Reuters.

NEW MENACE

Saigon, Oct. 1. — Indications appeared today that the Annamites are massing on the outskirts of Saigon for a concerted attack when a thousand French reinforcements disembark September 3.

The Annamites have an estimated force of 20,000 men, three-fourths of them armed in the north central area of Saigon. An unestimated number of armed natives are massing on the main roads to the city's southern area.

Despite official attempts to minimize the outbreaks, the known casualties in the first week of violence were 319 dead, including 204 Annamites and 100 French civilians. The wounded total at least 234. — Associated Press.

Orders Flowing In

London, Oct. 1. The need for speeding up demobilization is stressed by all London's newspapers, which emphasize the need for putting men into industry and building up the export trade of the country before the opportunity is lost.

The "News-Chronicle" today quotes the case of one business man who said that orders are pouring in from overseas. He has already enough to keep him going for ten years even if he enlarges his factory and employs another 500 men. — Reuters.

G. C. WORRALL'S DEATH IN JAPAN

News has been received in Hong Kong of the death of Mr. G. C. Worrall in March of this year in a prisoner-of-war camp in Japan. Mr. Worrall was senior executive of the Asiatic Petroleum Co. (South China) Ltd. in Hong Kong and was a member of the Maritime section of Hong Kong Naval Volunteers.

H.K. WAR ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

A war activities committee has been appointed by the Commander-in-Chief, His Excellency Rear-Admiral C. H. Harcourt to examine evidence with regard to alleged collaborationist activities during the Japanese occupation.

SWIFT STROKE HITS JAP BANK COMBINE

TOKYO, OCT. 1. TWENTY-ONE JAPANESE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS—WITH EMPEROR HIROHITO'S PERSONAL FORTUNE PROBABLY AT STAKE—WERE INVOLVED IN GENERAL MACARTHUR'S SEIZURE ORDERS WHICH WERE CARRIED OUT ON SUNDAY.

OFFICIALS OF THE INSTITUTIONS WERE OUSTED IN A SWIFT BLOW AGAINST THE GREAT BANKING COMBINE THAT EXPLOITED THE EMPIRE CREATED BY THE ARMED FORCES.

Details of how the stroke against the financial oligarchy was executed became known today. Without warning, General MacArthur threw armed troops around financial houses in Tokyo, Osaka, Yokohama, Nagoya, Kobe, Shimonoseki and Fukuoka.

While the troops marched, representatives of the Japanese Finance Ministry were summoned to Supreme Headquarters. Troops entered the banks at 4 p.m. and impounded all funds, securities and records.

At the same instant, MacArthur's headquarters handed the Finance Ministry orders freezing all operations and removing all officials.

MacArthur announced that all institutions which either formed the financial spearhead or supporting waves of exploitation in military conquests of Asia and Pacific islands were marked for liquidation.

BANK OF JAPAN

The Bank of Japan was occupied, but headquarters said that it, as a commercial institution, is not permanently affected and is expected to reopen promptly. Most of the other institutions did not engage in regular banking deposit business.

The seized institutions included the so-called "big three": the Manchurian Heavy Industry Development Company; the Bank of Chosen (Korea); and the Bank of Taiwan (Formosa). Two branches of the Bank of Chosen, which was aligned with the Bank of Japan, were involved. It is the financial agent which fed smugglers from Korea into China late in the 1920's in a long run attempt to spread economic chaos and prepare China for conquest.

BIG CLANS INVOLVED

Three branches of the Bank of Taiwan were involved. It was the monopolistic financial control agency by which industries controlled the Philippines, Dutch Borneo and New Guinea.

The wealthy houses of Mitsui and Fuyo were believed deeply involved with the Bank of Taiwan.

The Japanese government controlled directly or indirectly the seized institutions. The shareholders are mainly members of the Imperial Household and big industry.

The Finance Ministry offered to liquidate all institutions and place value on all individual deposits of "the ordinary man." — Associated Press.

WAR CRIMINALS

Headquarters today stated that they were going into the question whether some of the financial heads of Japan should not be tried as war criminals.

It is not intended to disrupt the Japanese financial system. Ordinary Japanese citizens are only interested in the Bank of Chosen and Bank of Taiwan, which have deposit banks, but they will be able to withdraw funds within a few days at the most. — Reuters.

FIRE DISASTER

Port Said, Oct. 1. The scale of the disaster aboard the "Empire Patrol" which caught fire about 60 miles from Port Said is no quita as serious as first reports suggested, but there were 38 deaths aboard. — Reuters.

TYPHOON SCARE

Owing to the typhoon scare yesterday, submarines which were alongside the Dockyard, and which had been supplying the city with its electric light and power, were taken to anchorages in mid-stream.

Consequently the load was greatly reduced and consumers were requested last night to economize to the fullest extent. The King's Theatre was closed down for the evening.

The supply during the night inquiries from the Hong Kong Electric Co. revealed, came from the Power Station, Royal Naval Dockyard.

Asked when power would be supplied from the North Point Station, it was stated that a definite date could be given but it will not be long before 'long Kong' will be enjoying a full supply.

At 8.45 p.m. enquiries from the Naval Dockyard regarding the typhoon met with the reply that "the scare is over, there's no more typhoon. The signal was lowered at 7 p.m."

H.M.S. Anson, H.M.S. Vanguard and other big ships put to sea owing to the typhoon threat.

A jeep took refuge in the arcade of the Gloucester Hotel.

Volunteers Coming Back

Information has been received that there are approximately 100 members of the H.K.V.D.C. from Japan now in Manila awaiting transshipment to Hong Kong, and it is expected that they will be returning shortly to retain their next of kin in Hong Kong.

It is reiterated, but it is still not yet possible to give the names of the whereabouts and state of health of any P.O.W.s from Japan.

The matter is, however, still receiving the most urgent consideration and it is hoped very shortly that official lists will be published.

In the case of those who are not returned to Hong Kong, next of kin and families who are now in Hong Kong will be sent to rejoin their husbands, etc., wherever they may be, if they are not coming back within say, the next month.

Argentine Revolt In Two Months Warned

MONTEVIDEO, SEPT. 30. A REVOLT WHICH WILL OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT OF GENERAL OBERTHRO PARRELL IN THE ARGENTINE WITHIN TWO MONTHS WAS PREDICTED BY ARGENTINE SOCIALIST LEADER, DR. ALFREDO PALACIOS, WHEN HE ARRIVED IN MONTEVIDEO.

"THE PRESENT SITUATION IN THE ARGENTINE CANNOT LAST MORE THAN TWO MONTHS," HE SAID. "A GENERAL STRIKE WOULD PARALYZE ALL THE ACTIVITIES OF THE COUNTRY AND THE NAVY WOULD THEN PLACE ITSELF AT THE HEAD OF THE MOVEMENT WHICH WOULD BRING ABOUT THE FALL OF THE DICTATORSHIP."

Doctor Palacios is one of a number of Argentine political leaders who have arrived in Uruguay after escaping arrest. They were warned to flee half an hour before the Police arrived at their homes.

Another Argentine Socialist leader, Dr. Guillermo Korn, who arrived in Montevideo recently after crossing the River Plate estuary to Carmelo on the Uruguayan side, said: "It is time for exiles to form a junta, representing all the democratic forces, which should direct its external activity towards obtaining recognition by the Pan-American Government."

Some of the Argentine exiles who took refuge in the Uruguayan Embassy in Buenos Aires stated that they had made their way past members

'NO CIVIL WAR' PLEDGES Chiang's Offers To Reds

CHUNGKING, OCT. 1. IT IS KNOWN DESPITE PLEDGED OFFICIAL SECRECY THAT THE CONFERENCE BETWEEN THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT AND THE COMMUNISTS NEGOTIATORS HAVE LED TO A DECISION FOR RETAINING AN ALL-PARTY POLITICAL COUNCIL WITH BROAD POWERS TO DEAL WITH OUTSTANDING QUESTIONS BETWEEN THE KUOMINTANG AND COMMUNISTS UNTIL CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT IS INSTITUTED THROUGH THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

THE NEGOTIATORS ALSO ARE SEEKING A SOLUTION TO CRUCIAL MILITARY QUESTIONS. APPARENTLY THE COMMUNISTS' ACE IN THE HOLE IS THE UNANSWERED QUESTION OF WHAT SUPPORT RUSSIA MIGHT GIVE COMMUNIST CHINA IF THE REDS PRESS THEIR DEMAND FOR VIRTUAL AUTONOMY.

THE SLIGHTEST SUGGESTION OF ANY CHANGE IN AMERICAN POLICY HAS A BAROMETRIC EFFECT ON THE NEGOTIATORS. THE NEGOTIATORS CLOSELY WATCHED THE RECENT UNITED STATES STATE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL SHIFTS. IT IS KNOWN THAT THE COMMUNISTS ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE U.S. MARINE LANDINGS IN NORTH CHINA.

The Communists were ready September 21 to issue a joint communique covering generalities on which they were in agreement, but Chungking refused to join in what it called a "slipshod" communique which could not cover a settlement on the reduction of Communist troops and the political and administrative complexion of the Communist-held areas of North China.

The Communist request for a reorganized Red army of 48 divisions, pending complete nationalisation of China's armed forces, already has been pared to 24 or 30.

The Communists wanted to name the governor in Hopei, Shantung, Chahar and Shansi provinces; vice-mayors in Peiping and Tientsin and create a new province out of the border regions of Ninghsia, Kansu and Shensi. — Associated Press.

EQUAL NUMBERS

Chungking, Oct. 1. — Hope for a united China now lies in the All Party Political Council. The Council will most probably be composed of equal numbers of Kuomintang (Government Party) Communists, other parties and non-party representatives. Only the united plea by the Generalissimo and Major-General Patrick J. Hurley, United States Ambassador, within the last few days, raised the conversations to a higher plane, has prevented the negotiations from becoming bogged down in incidental detail.

Both General Mao Tse-tung, the Communist leader, and Generalissimo Chiang declared that in no circumstances will they provoke a civil war. That assurance with an agreement to create an All Party Council and settlement of a few minor principles is the total result of four weeks' parleys.

PERSONAL DEALINGS

There are no minutes of the negotiations. Each party asserts that the other party wanted secrecy, and all vital decisions have been taken by the two leaders in person.

The parties appeared within an hour of a conditional agreement on September 21, when Government negotiators were told to stand by.

At the midnight meeting in the United States Embassy, Generalissimo Chiang and Generalissimo Mao agreed on the terms which were in effect: "You can have the twenty divisions you want if you withdraw the proposal claiming the right to nominate governors, vice-governors and vice-mayors in certain provinces."

The discussion went on into the early hours of the morning, and the Communist leader was asked "do you accept or reject the terms?"

He replied "these matters are very complicated."

NO COMMUNIQUE

At 2.30 a.m. it was decided not to issue a communique rather than issue one of generalities which would only encourage the hopes of millions of Chinese waiting to hear news of the agreement.

Major-General Hurley returned to Washington the next day with the Communists' demand for a first stage of the settlement.

Generalissimo Chiang this morning offered the Communists a share in the Government, but they rejected the offer.

Two previous attempts at settlement failed because the Kuomintang would not consent to the Communist demand for a Coalition Government and the Kuomintang is apprehensive of a block of provinces under Communist civil and military control. The Communists charge the Kuomintang with wanting to install their one party rule instead of the democratic system.

NEW TECHNIQUE

The agreement for an All-Party Political Council indicates the adoption of a new technique, departing from the unsuccessful line of negotiations to date.

When it was known in 1937 the Communists had three divisions of troops, while the Central Government had 180 to 200 divisions.

The Generalissimo told General Mao at their first meeting on August 28, that his Government would consent to the Communists having a maximum of twelve divisions. The Communists yesterday asked for twenty to twenty-four divisions, and the Generalissimo conditionally agreed.

The Kuomintang say that whereas the Communists had one division, they now demand one-sixth. The Communists claim they have an army of 2,000,000 soldiers and a Peoples Militia of 2,200,000. They claim nineteen liberated areas.

RED OFFER

They are prepared to withdraw their forces from the following eight areas: Kwangtung, Chekiang, South Kiangsi, South Anhwei (South of the Yangtze), Central Anhwei (north of the Yellow River).

That was as far as things had gone when General Chou En-lai, veteran Communist negotiator, presented Dr. Wang Shih-chieh, Foreign Minister, with the eleven-point plan. Some of the points were acceptable in principle, but the Kuomintang did not like the clause headed "measures essential to the democratization of politics."

H.K. ELECTRIC TO MAKE TRIAL ON WEDNESDAY

"Everything possible is being done to restore lighting on the island, and we are now in the final stages of repair work," declared a Hong Kong Electric Company official late last night.

Indications are that a trial will be made on Wednesday and if that is successful current will be supplied on Thursday, although the official was not prepared even to make that prediction.

We were informed that it is possible the current will be switched off as from 1 a.m. today and that it will be possibly off for the remainder of the day.

New Plans For The Tramways

IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE TRAM SERVICE BETWEEN CAUSEWAY BAY AND WHITTY STREET WILL BE RESUMED SOMETIME THIS WEEK.

The fares are to be: First Class, 20 cents; Third Class, 10 cents. There will be no monthly tickets.

During the continuance of abnormal conditions in the power station, it will be necessary to withdraw the trams each day between 6.30 and 7.30 p.m.

It is hoped to restore both the overhead equipment and the tramway service on:

(1) the Happy Valley route, and (2) the Kennedy Town route in the course of this month.

The pre-war stopping places and the pre-war system of fare collection will be reinstated.

Where To Go For Money

It is notified that the following persons will be responsible for pay arrangements of local Volunteers who are demobilized outside of Hong Kong, Macao and China.

(a) United Kingdom and places other than those referred to in (b), (c) and (d) below:—The Hong Kong Government Account, Hope House, 45 Great Peter Street, London, S.W.1.

(b) Australia and New Zealand:—The Hong Kong Government Finance Liaison Officer, 61, Hunter Street, Sydney, N.S.W.

(c) South Africa:—Imperial Paymaster, Garlick House, Field Street, Durban.

(d) Canada:—Trade Commissioner for United Kingdom in Canada, at Ottawa.

All Volunteers repatriated from Hong Kong should apply on arrival at their final destination, to the appropriate Government offices. Accounts, etc. of these Volunteers in Hong Kong, Macao or China will be dealt with by Volunteer Headquarters, Hong Kong.

Clearing Stanley

ACCORDING TO PLAN, STANLEY INTERNMENT CAMP IS TO BE CLEARED IN THE COURSE OF THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

It is understood that those remaining behind after Sir "Dick" and Monarch leaves will be transferred to Kowloon. This will involve a couple of hundred people.

Those people residing at present at the Maryknoll Mission, Stanley, are also to be transferred, we learn, to Rosary Hill.

Some interference has been received permission to clear the camp, but it is considered likely that those may forfeit the money, paid to repatriates—£5 per family or £1 an individual and 10 shillings a child—and the clothing which is being housed at Port Said.

FRAGILE—WITH CARE

Chungking, Oct. 1. — China's wartime press censorship ended formally at midnight and the only restriction now is on certain news from areas where military operations are not completed.

The Supreme National Defence Council has approved new regulations under which all laws for wartime censorship are nullified and the present publication law is revised in the light of new conditions. Film censorship will continue under revised regulations.

Dr. K. C. Wu told newspapermen that the Chinese press should have a new conception of its responsibilities under the abolition of censorship. Dr. Wu, who is Minister of Information, said it should place the interests of the State above its own. — Associated Press.

WAR ACTIVITIES

Announcement of the formation of a War Activities Committee has not come before its time.
There is a lot of work to be done and the sooner it is tackled, the better the chance of bringing down the real outburst. Much of the evidence, of course, already exists and the most serious of the committee will be that of lifting it out, weighing one piece of evidence against another, and selecting the best of those pieces.
These activities to police searching investigation. After that, the committee will be satisfied with nothing less than a full and thorough examination of the evidence to find and bring them to trial and justice.

There is, of course, another side of the picture. Mr. B.A.A. North to whom it is hardly in his factoll to mention, of the S.A. Star yesterday. He mentioned two names and this is no need for us to refer to them again. What he had to say, however, raises a point of equal importance. If justice requires the punishment of the guilty, it also demands the lifting of clouds of suspicion from the true facts being known, they may hang without warrant. One way or the other, just cents can be and also too easily found without a sufficient amount of data. This task, too, might well come within the compass of the committee.
Quite probably no mention of the matter is included within its terms of reference, but if its members, investigating alleged crimes, find facts and go to in line to the desirability in special cases of the exoneration, it is his duty to make quite sure that they do not begin and end their career in dusty files.

There were collaborators who violated with each other to bring death and degradation to hundreds in order to curry favour with their Japanese masters. Time will not soon forget the crime of the colony's resolution to see that they pay for their crimes. But we do not want collaborators.
Where so many have acted, it could be wrong for a few to be excluded out of a glut of tri-adities. But all of it will take careful looking into. The Committee can be quite sure of only one thing. Treating a thankless task, it can expect none.

Kellett Island
As A Club

THE ROYAL HONG KONG
YACHT CLUB, ON KELLET
ISLAND, IS NOW BEING USED
AS A RECREATIONAL CLUB
FOR OFFICERS OF THE SER-VICES.

On Saturday it was officially opened by the Commander-in-Chief, Rear-Admiral Harcourt in the presence of Commodore D. E.
Everett, D.S.O., M.B.E., and Capt.
D. M. Neame, commanding officer
H.M.S. Vengeance, and a number of officers.

The ceremony took place after the first day's racing. Four sailing dinner took part, the race being won by Comdr. E. H. Stokes, R.N.
(Comdr. Flying, H.M.S. Vengeance).

Work of restoring the Yacht Club had been carried out by officers and men, H.M.S. Vengeance including Comdr. Stokes, Lt. Talbot Scobie, R.N.R., and Sub-Lt.
G. Dunn, R.N.V.R. The ship's electrical officer who provided light for the premises from 24 batteries.

Officers and men from other ships helped to clean up the building and restore the plumbing. A life buoy has been hung in the lounge bearing the inscription
"Presented to the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club by officers and men, H.M.S. Vengeance, who reopened the Club on September 17."

Two squash courts are being used and the bowling alley will shortly be in operation. The Club now possesses two sailing dinghies and a Japanese Motor Torpedo Boat which has been converted for the use of the Club.

Low Dunn, who was a first

erican and His Orchestra, Jack Tarris, Lou Stone and others conductor of the R.A.F. Orchestra in the show "Thanks A Million" rehearsal for which

atre to-day.

The chief organizer, A. B.
Tory, is also making a special visit, of Avon, a dancer
well-known to Stanley Internes, who may be expected to "bring down the house."

TRACING COLONY'S
MISSING MEN

THE AUTHORITIES IN HONG KONG ARE MAKING USE OF RECORDS COMPILED BY A SERGEANT IN THE ROYAL ARTILLERY, IN THEIR ATTEMPTS TO TRACE THE FATE OF EACH MEMBER OF THE ORI-GINAL HONG KONG GARRISON—OF MORE THAN 14,000 INDIAN, BRITISH AND CANADIAN TROOPS.

THE GUNNER CONCERNED IS SERGEANT TOPPER,
WHO SPENT THREE AND A HALF YEARS IN SHAM
SHUIPO CAMP AND LISTED THE NAMES AND FATES OF THOUSANDS OF MEN SO FAR AS HE COULD DISCOVER THEM.

CORRESPONDENCE

DON'T AGREE

Sir,—We note with interest the comments of "Briton" in your issue of September 27. We also believe in fairplay, but it seems to me that our friend is forgetting all too quickly the crimes committed by the people he wants fairplay for. The great majority of us have been in Burma and seen greater crimes than those published in any newspaper committed by them. We think they should receive the same treatment as the British (as he calls them) who lived hand to mouth. Not wishing to be sarcastic, where has our friend been? Has he seen the evidence placed before his own eyes? Let us once and for all take off our kid gloves. When (?) we were at the same time, we do not want to see our children go off and fight another war. Let us really show these people that we mean business. If we are going to take this sort of attitude, I wonder why we were fighting in the jungle and swamps, fighting an enemy worse than disease in a thousand forms. Perhaps "Briton" can tell us?

MOHAWK.

AND YET ANOTHER

Sir, Stonine is only a small particle of the punishment the Japanese deserve for all their wrongdoings. Let the wretches give to their wretches and have their fun at the same time. I don't want to argue "Briton", but perhaps to had the good luck to escape their despotism. I once saw a Japanese officer directing his doto bite an old man hovering for alms and who had the ill fortune to be in his way. The old man died a few days later. Picture what you would feel in my place.

THOSE WHO STAYED BEHIND

Sir,—In making a sweeping condemnation of the "third nationalists" who remained in Hong Kong during the Japanese occupation, "Fairplay" apparently overlooked, or perhaps was unaware of, the fact that a large number of Chinese, especially the poorer classes, had no place to go where there was any possibility of finding a living on the barest necessities. Identically the term "third nationalists" as applied by the Japanese did not include Chinese; however, only Chinese, Portuguese and Eurasians have been singled out for attack hence my reference to Chinese.

As for the real "third nationalists" as a considerable number stayed behind to tend parcels of foodstuffs and clothes, etc., to their relatives, friends and employers who were interned in the various camps. They went through hardship and sacrifice to maintain funds for the purchase of these parcels, but their ranks diminished as they found it increasingly difficult to raise funds, and they in turn became more or less interlocked in the reform center in Macao when their funds had run out and it was no longer possible to continue in Hong Kong the good work they had been doing for the camp internees. Hundreds of internees, of many nationalities have stated that the sending of these parcels by their relatives and friends meant the difference between life and death to them.

One might ask why so many stayed behind, and for so long.
Apart from those who had no place to go to, there were those who, having stuck it out a year (when living costs were not high),
then another year, were determined to see it through. It may be said that there was no way for the average person in Hong Kong to know what was actually happening in the rest of the world,
with the result that the average person had no means of estimating the probable duration of the war.
The optimists counted on a victory over Japan by the end of 1942 and certainly before the winter of 1943, at the very latest. They were those who simply accepted the assurance of their Britan and American friends that the war against Japan would be won in Hong Kong within a few months.

"Fairplay" suggests the
"high and more responsible nationals" should be given to those mentioned in his group (1). I suggest that these nationals be given to those who deserve them on merit, regardless of race or religion, to ensure not only fairplay in the real sense of the term but also ensure greater efficiency in the various departments concerned.
As for those who directly assisted the Japanese authorities, millions, politically, economically and in espionage, they deserve punishment and no doubt the proper authorities will deal with them.

Last Hong Kong fell into the hands of the Japanese, everyone has joined any service—whether such service lasted 27 days or longer or even less—a consequence to be welcomed and welcomed to the point of neglecting

His work, in three small notebooks and a sheaf of type-script, were left with the camp
hospital when he was repatriated,
together with the burial records and some scrap- and sometimes false information obtained from the Japanese.

Complete records of the garrison will never be obtained and it will be several months before a nearly complete list can be issued.
It was estimated that nearly 10,000 were taken prisoner and 600 died in captivity. The missing number about 300, but many have since been traced.

The Japanese admit the execution of three British and one Indian officer and 11 other ranks for "attempting to escape."

At one stage the Japanese refused to permit death certificates to be issued for diseases of malnutrition, and also refused proper burial, insisting that the dead be put in big bomb craters. — Reuter

JAP. NAVAL
PRISONERS MOVED

ALL JAPANESE NAVAL PERSONNEL WHO WERE
FIRST INTERNEED AT GAR-DEN CITY, KOWLOON

FERRED TO THE SHAM-
SHUIPO AND ARGYLE
STREET P.O.W. CAMPS.

Of the total of more than 6,000 Japanese naval men here,
2,900 are now at Shamshuipo and more than 4,000 at Argyle Street.

Military and naval prisoners of war in camps in Kowloon total a little over 12,000.

All Japanese military gear is gradually being collected into one centralized dump in Kowloon.

TIENTSIN TROUBLES

Tientsin, Oct. 1.—In entering Tientsin, United States first division marines came into a zone where pitched battles have been under way for six weeks.

The marines were cheered by flag-waving Chinese along the Ba-river banks as they came to assume police duties in the hot spot.

Japanese regulars, Chinese puppet troops and well-armed "palaunits, purporting to be soldiers of the Communist eighth route army, have been doing the battling.

Relations also are strained between Chinese Nationalists and Communists.

The Communist Eighth Route
Army has an estimated 35,000 troops in the Tientsin-Peking area. Eighth Route Regulars hold sections of the countryside.

It is necessary to pass through their lines to reach the airport
outside the walled city.

The first Chinese Nationalist troops to arrive received a thunderous ovation from the populace.

Sparks Fly: Explosive Palestine Situation

NEW FORMULA

Belfast, Oct. 1. The Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, in a speech here today, said that Britain was suffering from an economic headache which, has been developing for six years. What was required now was not blood and sweat and tears, but authority, economy and hard work. — Reuter.

CHECK ON JAPANESE PRISONERS

BANGKOK, OCT. 1. SEVENTY JAPANESE CONNECTED WITH PRISONERS OF WAR CAMPS IN BURMA AND SIAM YESTERDAY MORNING PARADED BEFORE A GROUP OF SIXTY AUSTRALIAN AND OTHER BRITISH AND DUTCH EX-PRISONERS OF WAR FOR IDENTIFICATION.

Forty-five Japanese were re-combed and photographed and will be interrogated, and others unrecognized, have been tentatively given a clean bill of health. The Japanese were escorted through the line by former prisoners of war, some of whom worked on the Burma-Siam railway.

Charges levelled against most of the guards were of beatings, starvation and holding back of food, and medical supplies. Later, Indian civilians resident in Bangkok were taken through the rank of about 500 other Japanese to attempt identification of those who had mistreated them while seeking to force them to join the Indian Independence League. A check was made at Bangkok jail, this being the first formal check made. — Reuter.

DOCK STRIKE IN BIRKENHEAD

London, Oct. 1. The strike of 2,000 dockworkers at Birkenhead remains unsettled after a week. The men are demanding an increase in pay from 17s. to 25s. a day. The Leeds bus and tram strike, in which 2,000 men were involved, was terminated yesterday. — Reuter.

LONDON, OCT. 1. AN EXPLOSIVE SITUATION IN PALESTINE HAS NEARLY REACHED ITS CLIMAX THIS WEEK-END WITH RESPONSIBLE SPOKESMEN OF THE JEWS AND ARABS STATING THEIR CASES IN UNCOMPROMISING TERMS — ARABS THREATENING TO RESIST IF THE JEWS WERE ALLOWED TO ENTER PALESTINE — AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN REQUESTING THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO ADMIT DISPLACED JEWS FROM GERMANY INTO PALESTINE.

AN INDICTMENT OF CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH 60,000 JEWISH DISPLACED PERSONS ARE LIVING IN THE BRITISH, AMERICAN AND FRENCH ZONES IN GERMANY AND A NINE-POINT PROGRAM DEMANDING THE REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES AND AN "OPEN DOOR" TO PALESTINE WERE OUTLINED BY LEADING JEWISH RELIEF WORKERS AT LUENBURG TO-DAY.

According to A. L. Easterman of the World Jewish Agency, these Jewish displaced persons — a vast majority of whom are in the British and United States zones — are still detained at Belsen, Larderg and Felderfing Camps under semi-prison conditions.

Easterman added: "Any attempt to force Jews back to their countries of origin will be resisted. There is only one solution they will accept and that is to go to Palestine. DANGER SIGNAL

The danger signal was sounded in Palestine, when Dr. Bernard Joseph stated in an interview with Roy Elston, special correspondent. "The restraining hand of constitutional Zionism cannot be exercised much longer. It is clenching angrily in common with the whole Jewish people."

Representative Jewish bodies in the Zionist Council. Dr. Joseph said his party had asked the governments of Syria and Lebanon not to grant any more visas to Jews. — Reuter.

POLICE PRECAUTIONS

British police officials in Palestine have met and put the finishing touches on their preparations to deal with any possible disturbances. Daylight curfew will be enforced should the occasion arise. A reliable estimate of the strength of the Jewish Defense Organization (opposed to the Terzariat group) put its total armed force at 8,000 men armed with rifles, tommy guns, machine guns, some artillery and armoured cars. No general uprising against the British by this body is expected. It is thought that ships carrying Jewish refugees from Europe will be the ones of protection will be put on British police and troops.

EXTREMELY GRAVE

Jewish leaders are asking whether the Labour Ministers will sanction firing on refugees who come to Palestine in this way. The outlook is still extremely grave, and unless there is an early settlement, it might now explode at any moment. British troubles in Palestine may be followed by others elsewhere in the Middle East. Demands for the evacuation of British troops from Egypt are growing and may precipitate a crisis. — Reuter.

AFRICAN TROOPS

East and West African troops are now guarding military and public installations in Jerusalem including the civilian operated electric power station. They have replaced the Palestinian auxiliary policemen — both Arabs and Jews — who have been withdrawn and are probably being disbanded. These auxiliary constables had hitherto done sentry guard duties outside camps, army buildings and installations. — Reuter.

DAMASCUS THREAT

Damascus, Sept. 30. — A meeting of the Moslem religious leaders held here under the chairmanship of Mifti Abdul Hakim to discuss the Palestine question has drawn up a note to the Allies which states that the partition of Palestine might lead to a proclamation of "holy war" with the support of the sovereign Arab states. — Reuter.

LIZZIE IN FULL DRESS

Southampton, Oct. 1. The Queen Elizabeth arrived here to-day wearing her red and black house colours for the first time since she became a sailing ship. One of her passengers was Miss Frances Perkins, President Truman's Labour Secretary. She is to visit the Continent, returning to England for talks with the British Minister of Labour. — Reuter.

MR. NORTH LIFTS A VEIL

THE HON. MR. R. A. C. NORTH WHO HAS BEEN SO MANY YEARS SECRETARY OF STATE FOR CHINESE AFFAIRS, MADE AN IMPORTANT STATEMENT YESTERDAY AT HIS HOME AT THE S.C.A. ON THE EVE OF HIS DEPARTURE FOR THE UNITED KINGDOM.

"I shall be leaving reluctantly," said Mr. North in a brief speech to members of the S.C.A. "since there is so much work to be done but I hope that in due course when my health has been restored I shall be able to return and take a useful part in the work of reconstruction."

"When a house has collapsed the ruins must be removed before the building can be restored. The work of reconstruction left by the Japanese must be cleared and the ground cleared for rebuilding."

"Before I go I wish to pay a tribute to those citizens of Hong Kong who endured with splendid courage and determination the worst that the Japanese invaders could do; to offer my sympathy to those who lost friends, relatives and colleagues and to express my admiration of those who, seeing the work of many years destroyed, are coming forward with hope and cheerfulness to rebuild the city."

A MISUNDERSTANDING "As a prisoner in the hands of the Japanese I have witnessed and felt the sufferings of the Chinese people who were forced to remain at liberty in order that I might interfere for them, but being interned I could not do this."

"It was for this reason that I went with Mr. Fraser and Sir Grenville Abbot to China. I met and requested Sir Robert Kewell and Sir Shouson Chow and their colleagues to take upon themselves what should have been my duty."

"These gentlemen in trying to carry out this task were abused and humiliated by the Japanese and were misunderstood and blamed by some of their friends. I regret more than ever that the misunderstanding should have arisen over this matter, and sincerely hope that the truth will now be realised. Finally I appeal to all sections of the people to join in one united effort to overcome all the difficulties which lie before us."

KOWLOON ARRESTS

AMONG THE NUMEROUS ARRESTS CARRIED OUT BY THE MILITARY ADMINISTRATION, KOWLOON YESTERDAY WAS ONE INVOLVING A STREET HAWKER, A WOMAN, WHO WAS SELLING ETHER AS BABY FOOD.

Many shops on both sides of the harbour have been raided in the past few days for duty free goods placed on sale that had been obtained on barter from servicemen.

These consisted chiefly of British and American cigarettes, and had been exchanged principally for silks. Among the "black market" spoils seized was some Naaf beer.

The attitude of the Military Administration is that ignorance of the law claimed by shopkeepers cannot be accepted as an excuse.

SPREADING INDUSTRY

London, Oct. 1. The nature and extent of financial aid to be given by the Treasury to industries re-establishing themselves under the Distribution of Industry Act is to be studied by a committee set up by the Exchequer. Firms seeking aid must have complied with the requirements of the Board of Trade. The scheme is connected with the plans for spreading industry more evenly throughout the country and restricting ribbon development along the arterial roads close to London and other big manufacturing areas. — Reuter.

Lüneburg, Oct. 1. The case for the prosecution in the Belsen trial is expected to close to-day or to-morrow. — Reuter.

ATLANTIC CHARTER CITED BY NEHRU

FOLLOWING THE DECLARATION BY PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, INDIAN CONGRESS LEADER, THAT INDIAN TROOPS MUST NOT BE USED TO SUPPRESS NATIONAL UPRISINGS OF THE INDONESIAN OR OTHER COLONIAL PEOPLE, A STATEMENT ON SIMILAR LINES HAS BEEN ISSUED BY THE FEDERATION OF INDIAN ASSOCIATIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN ON BEHALF OF THE INDIAN COMMUNITY IN BRITAIN.

THIS CONDEMNS THE USE OF INDIAN ALLIED AND JAPANESE TROOPS TO SUPPRESS THE NATIONAL LIBERATION MOVEMENTS IN COUNTRIES OF SOUTH-EAST ASIA. THIS ACT REPRESENTS VIOLATION OF THE ATLANTIC CHARTER AND IS IN DIRECT CONTRADICTION TO THE AIMS FOR WHICH THE WAR IS CLAIMED TO HAVE BEEN FOUGHT."

The Federation assures the peoples of Indonesia that in conforming with the policy and programme of the Indian National Congress, India's complete solidarity is with them in their struggle.

It welcomes the stand taken up by the working classes in Australia and New Zealand in support of the Indonesian freedom movements, and urges the British working classes, in particular the Trade Congress, to demand that the British Government should immediately cease intervention for purposes of re-establishing Dutch and French imperialism in the Far East.

A copy of the statement has been sent to the British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee. Mr. James Hooley, National President of Australia Water Side Workers' Federation, whose members are refusing to handle ships which they suspect may be taking arms for use against Indonesians, or food for intervention forces, said yesterday the whole matter could be settled if the Dutch Government would announce its attitude towards granting an independent government to Indonesians on lines of the Atlantic Charter. — Reuter.

Found With Revolvers

Sentence of nine months' hard labour was passed by the Magistrate, Mr. F. G. Nigel, at Kowloon Court yesterday on Lee Wah, 33, a native of Wai-chow convicted on a charge of illegal possession of one revolver and 45 rounds of ammunition at 120 Keeling Street, 1st floor.

A similar sentence was passed on Lau Kan, 22, convicted on a similar charge.

Charged with larceny of Government stores, Wong Yuc-pa was fined $30 or one month's hard labour in default. He was convicted of the larceny of two boxes of chocolate, five cans of cheese and one can of vegetable oil.

Six defendants charged with larceny of motor-boat machinery were sentenced to 12 months' hard labour each.

Troops Land In Steady Stream At Batavia

BATAVIA, OCT. 1.

IT WAS REVEALED TO-DAY THAT LIEUT. GENERAL SIR PHILIP CHRISTISON IS TO LAND TWO DIVISIONS OF BRITISH TROOPS IN JAVA AND SUMATRA.

TROOPS ARE STILL LANDING IN A STEADY STREAM. THE 21ST INDIAN DIVISION HAVING ARRIVED AT BATAVIA TO REINFORCE THE SEAFORTH HIGHLANDERS BATTALIONS, AND LORD LOUIS MOUNTBATTEN HAS ANNOUNCED THAT THE OCCUPATION IS PROCEEDING SMOOTHLY ACCORDING TO SCHEDULE.

A senior Naval Staff officer called on Dr. Soekarno, the leader of the Indonesian nationalist group, and stressed that the lawless state of affairs outside the environs of the city must be brought under control. Inside Batavia, the situation has noticeably improved, but the situation elsewhere is causing concern.

A Washington message quotes the Netherlands Embassy there as responsible for a statement that Dr. Soekarno and his followers do not represent a spontaneous nationalist government, but comprise a Japanese puppet government of a totalitarian character.

It alleges that Dr. Soekarno received a high decoration from the Japanese for his collaboration, and that they allowed him 10 days after the surrender to proclaim an Indonesian "Republic."

NETHERLANDS' OFFER The statement also insists that the real nationalists show themselves fully prepared to co-operate with the Netherlands Government in framing and introducing a new constitution on the basis of Queen Wilhelmina's declaration of December 6, 1942.

This envisages equal status for all nationalities making up the population of Java, and promised a round table conference immediately after the liberation of the Netherlands East Indies. — Reuter.

BRITISH FLAG UP Singapore, Oct. 1. — The Japanese-occupied Indonesian independence movement has progressed so far that the new British occupation command over all the Dutch East Indies has had to insist that the Dutch negotiate with resistance leaders and to leave Indonesians armed for peace preservation.

They are also flying the British flag as a reminder that they are in command locally until the Dutch outline acceptable future policies. — Associated Press.

NEHRU'S STATEMENT ALLAHABAD, SEPT. 30. — PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, LEADER OF THE INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS, DECLARED TO-DAY THAT INDIAN TROOPS MUST NOT BE USED TO SUPPRESS NATIONAL UPRISINGS OF THE INDONESIAN OR OTHER COLONIAL PEOPLES.

"We are interested in the freedom of the subject countries of Asia and Africa and we would like to help them to achieve it," Nehru said.

"It is monstrous that our people and our armed forces should be employed to suppress those to whom we have the greatest sympathy," he said. He expects to tour other European countries including Spain, to explore the possibilities of post-war trade. — Associated Press.

WORSE AND WORSE

Washington, Oct. 1. — The national federation of telegraph and telephone workers has threatened a nationwide strike following a government order for dissolution of an affiliate union. More than 200,000 members of the national federation are employed in the Bell System and the American Telegraph and Telephone Company. The strike threat was voiced by a federation official after a National Labour Relations Board ordered the establishment of a Western Electric employees association, a key branch of the federation. Western Electric is one of the key suppliers of equipment for Bell and A. T. & T. Company. — Associated Press.

ANSWER

C.M.S. — Your letter has been forwarded to the proper authorities. It is a serious matter, but it seems undesirable to make a public issue of it unless there is a further crop of such incidents. There are 'bad hats' in every department of life. — Editor.

AMBASSA DRESSES!

London, Oct. 1. Mr. Ernest Bevin, the Foreign Secretary, has appointed a committee to go on one again into the question of the eligibility of women for senior diplomatic posts. — Reuter.

MORE DIZZY FIGURES

London, Oct. 1. The Treasury revealed to-day that expenditure during the first six months of the financial year totalled two thousand, seven hundred and fifty million pounds. This was nearly 200 million pounds less than the corresponding period of last year, but still represented expenditure in excess of fifteen million pounds a day. — Reuter.

Odd Border Situation

JUST BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES OF THE NEW TERRITORIES, FULLY ARMED JAPANESE AND CHINESE ARE OBSERVING AN ARMED PEACE THAT SEEMS A STRANGE GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT.

Within the Colony, there is no sign of the Japanese outside of prisoner camps or work gangs. But a dozen paces beyond the boundary bridge, a Japanese sentry with rifle and bayonet stands stiffly on one side of the railroad tracks and a Chinese sentry on the other side.

Fifty yards farther, 25 Japanese under a grinning little lieutenant, are housed in a railway station on one side of the tracks and a similar number of Chinese on the opposite. A truck drove up while news-people were at the scene, loaded with both Chinese and Japanese soldiers.

There apparently has been no effort yet by the Chinese to disarm the Japanese who outnumber them heavily in the region. The main Chinese forces have not arrived yet.

The only American officer in the area on Sunday estimated that 30,000 armed Japanese were still in the region between Canton and the New Territories. He came from Canton a few days ago on a Japanese-occupied train.

HENGYANG TROUBLE

The officer said there had been no trouble between the Japanese and Chinese in that area. He said the only surrender difficulty of which he had heard was at Hengyang, north of Kweilin. The Japanese went on an orgy of shooting, burning and raping there, he said.

At the boundary on the highway the British Commandos are on duty inside the line, while on the Chinese side there is a Japanese sentry and a shelter in which the Japanese have a dozen rifles neatly on racks like a small arsenal.
